About Navajo Medicine Man Jeremy Crank

Jeremy Crank and Great Grandfather

Jeremy was raised by his Grandparents, into a rich culture of the Navajo (Dineah) "Beauty-Way" of life.

Disciplined at birth and well into his teenage and adult years, he was taught the traditional culture and religious ceremonies that precedes his ancient ancestors of the Anasazi civilization.

Jeremy grew up learning the star systems according to the traditional "Night-Way" philosophy. His Grandfather told him countless stories of how the ancient ones planted the patterns through songs and prayers in the elusive 29 nights of the "Night-Way" ceremony.

Traditional Hogan Life

Jeremy was determined to keep these patterns in his heart and head. The stories told were that of the Navajo Creation Story in reverse.

At age 4, he completed his first "all-night-ceremony" without the help of his mentor, there were over 300 Navajo Medicine Men in attendance to witness this phenomenal event of a young apprentice performing a ceremony that is reverence to a 25 year old apprentice under a mentor-ship of the Navajo "Beauty-Way" with 6 years of training.

At the age of 13, Jeremy was given the sacred medicine bundle of the Night-Way. He had mastered the 29 night night-way ceremony, which also lead into the discovery of the Big Dipper Ceremony. Grandfather had groomed him from age 5 to the end of his 13th teenage year to implant this mysterious philosophy of the Navajo Night-Way.

Jeremy has lectured all over the world about his research of the Ancient Anasazi Civilization, been the Key Note speaker at various summits about Native American Culture and Preservation, Held hundreds of seminars about religious philosophies, been invited to numerous events all over the world as the proctor of the Sacred Eagle Staff, always called upon as a spiritual advisor to many dignitaries including their very own Navajo Nation President, Senators and Congressmen of the Southwest.

Jeremy has been all these characters as a Navajo Spiritual Leader, but he remains humble and keep himself balanced as he proceeds on in life as a mentor to his people and human being in the world.
